Island of Maui IS ACTIVE In Politics Now

Waikuku, Sept. 6.—The District committee of the Third Representative District will meet next Monday, September 8 for the purpose of nominating one candidate for the Senate and six for the House of Representatives. W. F. Pogue will call the meeting to order at 11 a. m.

It is very likely the District committee will make the following selections:

Joel Nakaleka, Molokai.
Philip Pali, Lahaina.
Samuel Kellinui, Waikuku.
Louis von Tempsey, Makawao.
J. K. Iosepa, Hana.

Senate—A. N. Hayden.
Hon. C. H. Dickey (R.), were nominated for the Senate. The illustrious "Old Bill" failed to receive a single vote.

For the House the following nominations were named: T. B. Lyons (D.), Adam Forsyth (D.), F. Beckley (H. R.), Tom Clark (D.), Pala Naki (D.), and three Republicans: Sam Kellinui, Philip Pali and J. Hapai Nui.

The Home Rulers held a meeting at the skating rink last night. It was not largely attended. The audience was favored with a talk from Maluka, one of the editors of a Home Rule paper who claimed that every one whom he sold his paper to became a Home Ruler through the force of his most convincing argument.

The Republicans will hold a mass meeting at the skating rink Waikuku next Monday evening, September 8, at which all the Republican candidates will make an open declaration of their acceptance of the Republican platform.

Posters are being circulated around Waikuku and suburbs and a large gathering is anticipated.

The leading Democrats of Maui have not yet openly avowed their acceptance of Bob Wilcox as their leader, and some of them through strict adherence to party principles will be forced to vote for him against their wishes. The Democrats, however, are considered unimportant factors in Maui politics since they have a very small following. Molokai is out strong for the Republican party.

BENEDICTS PLAY BALL

Waikuku, Sept. 6.—The much talked of match game of baseball between the married men of Waikuku and Kahului came off at Wells' park, Waikuku, last Sunday, Aug. 31 at 3 p. m.

The grand stand was crowded with the wives, sisters, mothers-in-law, and other relatives of the participants who were eager to watch their loved ones play ball.

The game lasted for two hours—two hours unspurred for intense excitement, merriment and laughter. T. B. Lyons and G. B. Robertson were the heavy hitters for Waikuku. They would send the ball beyond the fielders, far enough anyhow to earn a home run, but they were such miserable runners and poor walkers that they would invariably be put out at first.

It was a game full of fun and in that respect was better than a minstrel show. The score stood 36 to 8 in favor of the Waikukians and that evening the losing team entertained the visitors at the Maui hotel. It is rumored that the Benedicts of "Lahaina by the sea" are eager to meet the Waikukians. Let 'em come.

Navy Report On Mariposa Oil Trip

Washington, August 28.—Although the official report of Lieutenant Winchell, who was detailed to accompany the oil-burning steamer Mariposa on her recent trip from San Francisco to the Society Islands and return for the purpose of making a comprehensive report upon every feature of the oil-burning devices used by that steamer, has not yet reached the Navy Department, unofficial data has arrived which is considered very satisfactory to those interested.

The run from San Francisco is 3,438 knots. It was made by the Mariposa at the rate of 12.12 knots per hour, the whole run lasting eleven days, during which a little over 400 tons of oil were consumed. The number of pounds of oil per knot used on the run was 260.9, which is equivalent to 8.58 knots per ton of oil. It required 1.55 pounds of oil per hour to develop one-horse power. This is considered quite satisfactory, as under ordinary sea-going conditions it requires between two and one-half and three pounds of coal to develop one-horse power.

MANILA EDITORS GO TO JAIL.

Manila, August 25.—Frederick Dorr, proprietor, and Edward O'Brien, editor of Freedom, have each been sentenced to six months in Manila prison and fined $1,000 each for libeling Benito Le Garda, a native member of the Civil Commission, by publishing a certain article in Freedom.

Both Dorr and O'Brien have also been convicted of sedition, but have not yet been convicted on this count. These cases have been appealed to the Supreme Court of the Islands.

FAST TIME BY THE MAINE.

Philadelphia, Pa., August 25.—The new battleship Maine returned to Camp's shipyard today from her trial trip over the Cape Ann course. The vessel is said to have made a new coast record yesterday on the run between the Boston lightship and the Overfalls lightship off the Delaware cape, covering the distance of 410 miles in twenty-four hours ten minutes. Her average speed was 16.51 knots.

Thos. Clark called a meeting of the Democrats at Waikuku, last Thursday evening, and instead of the meeting nominating a purely Democratic ticket, those present succeeded in putting up a citizens' or popular ticket, the nominees being selected from all the political factions. Col. J. Richardson (D.), Col. Cornwell (D.), A. N. Kepolai (R.), and C. H. Dickey (R.), were nominated for the Senate. The illustrious "Old Bill" failed to receive a single vote.

For the House the following nominations were named: T. B. Lyons (D.), Adam Forsyth (D.), F. Beckley (H. R.), Tom Clark (D.), Pala Naki (D.), and three Republicans: Sam Kellinui, Philip Pali and J. Hapai Nui.

DEATH OF MAUIE

Waikuku, Sept. 6.—James K. Saunders, for many years a prominent resident of Keane, Maui, died of dropsy at the Mahalani hospital, Waikuku, last Monday, Sept. 1, at the age of 43 years. He had been ailing for many months but only concluded to come to the hospital a few weeks ago.

Mr. Saunders was a promising half-Chinese. He received his name by being brought up and educated by Dr. Saunders, who resided in Waikuku many years ago.

The late Jas. K. Saunders was a resident of Honolulu for many years, being employed in various capacities prior to his moving up to Maui several years ago. While at Honolulu he was considered quite a billiard player and the honors were evenly divided between himself and Morris K. Keohokalele.

Of late years, Mr. Saunders' time was much occupied with his law business, his offices being located at both Hana and Keane, and occasionally at Waikuku. The deceased leaves a wife and several children to mourn his loss.

The funeral was very largely attended, over twenty members of Haleakala Lodge, K. of P., heading the procession to the grave where the last sad rites were pronounced by Chaplain (Rev.) J. Nua. The pall-bearers were six members of the Waikuku police force, kindly sent by Sheriff L. M. Baldwin in remembrance of the faithful services rendered by the deceased when a commissioned officer of the force and only severing his connection when he became an attorney-at-law by Judge J. W. Kalua two years ago.

Independence Sought By American Catholics

London, August 25.—In a dispatch from Rome the correspondent of the Chronicle says that Rev. Benjamin T. Killey, Bishop of Savannah, Ga., had an audience with the Pope prior to visiting other Italian cities and took advantage of the occasion to urge upon the Pontiff the wishes of a large number of American Catholics for the emancipation of American Catholicism from the jurisdiction of the Congregation of the Propaganda at Rome, on the ground that the congregation was only intended to supervise religious affairs in infidel regions.

APOSTOLIC DELEGATE.

Rome, August 27.—Although it will not be officially announced until the end of the week, the appointment of Mgr. Guidi as apostolic delegate at Manila is considered assured.

Mgr. Guidi's name has been mentioned prominently in connection with the post at Manila before, but it was said he would not be sent because he did not know sufficient English. Mgr. Guidi has for years been the Pope's nearest counselor. He occupies apartments in the Vatican palace, and it is said the Pope in late years has taken no important step without consulting him.

PERU AND SUGAR CONVENTION.

Lima, August 24.—A motion has been presented in the Chamber of Deputies that Peru shall adhere for a term of five years to the terms of the Brussels sugar convention.

Pain-Killer, the old and well known remedy, has acquired a world-wide reputation for the cure of sudden colds, coughs, etc., weak stomach, indigestion, cramp or pain in the stomach, bowel complaint, diarrhoea and dysentery. It has lost none of its good name by repeated trials, but continues to occupy a prominent position in every family medicine chest. Avoid substitutes, there is but one Pain-Killer, Perry Davis'. Price 25c and 50c.

PACHECO REPLIES TO EDITOR FURTADO

Editor Evening Bulletin:—There appeared in Saturday morning's Advertiser a correspondence signed by Editor M. T. Furtado which for its spirit of treachery and for its contradictory statements deserves to be classed as the ravings of a fool or the effusion of a rogue.

Editor Furtado was dishonorably expelled from the Portuguese Political Club on the charge of "unlawful and deliberate intention to destroy the usefulness of the Portuguese Political Club by circulating lists soliciting people to become members of another political organization to be organized in opposition to the Portuguese Political Club, thereby bringing the Portuguese Political Club into disrepute and public contempt, which is contrary to the constitution and by-laws of the aforesaid club." In answer to this charge, "Editor" Furtado says in his communication: "A full and complete hearing was denied me by the Portuguese Political Club at the time I was expelled from the said club. I, as a Portuguese-American citizen, intended the aforesaid club in good faith and intended to abide by the rule of the majority," etc. And then the "editor" adds: "Several Republican members (who are the members that are not Republicans) of the club took it upon themselves to circulate pledges and have all Republican Portuguese voters sign them and if the number of signatures was of such a quantity as to warrant the organizing of a Republican Club (No. 2) such a club was to be organized."

I was given one of these pledges and I worked with all my heart to bring about the desired end.

The "editor" intended to "abide by the rule of the majority" ("Hell is paved with such good intentions"), but when he discovered that his faction was a hopeless minority he "worked with all his heart to organize another club." And after making this admission, which stamps him as a self-confessed traitor to the principles of the Portuguese Political Club, he has the consummate gall to say:

"When the 'cliques' found out what we were doing, they became alarmed (?) and conspired and concerted, and did conspire and succeeded in arranging everything their own way to expel me under suspension of rules at today's meeting. They knew that they could not do it in any other way, for they could not sustain their charges."

"They knew that a figat would be put up, so they expelled me under suspension of rules, without proving any allegation in the charges."

Say, wouldn't that "jar" you?

The "editor" also says: "As a sworn supporter of Frank Andrade, I wish to announce to all citizens of this Territory of Hawaii that Major Camara is the choice of sixty-one members of the club who will never qualify as voters in God's green footsteps, if they were to live 100 years, while Frank Andrade, on the other hand, received forty-eight votes of forty-eight American-Portuguese citizens and voters."

This is a false and malicious statement intended to deceive this community. When the election for candidates of the Portuguese Political Club took place, a ruling was made by the chairman that only those who were American citizens already and those who were eligible to become such, would be allowed to vote. Every member who voted at the election, of whom there was doubt as to their qualifications, were challenged by the judges of election and were tested.

There were 82 votes cast which were for first and second choice; Major Camara received 61 votes and Frank Andrade 48, while M. A. Silva received 36. According to the result of the election, two-thirds of the votes cast were against the endorsement of Andrade, so that anyone can realize the hopelessness of the minority faction to which "Editor" Furtado belongs. As to the allegation that the Portuguese Political Club has stuffed membership roll composed of old men who will never qualify to become American citizens, and boys under 18 years of age, all I say is that anyone interested in the membership of the Portuguese Political Club can dispel the illusion that it is composed of "straw men" by coming to any of our regular meetings, which take place every Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock at San Antonio Hall, Vineyard street.

In conclusion, I wish to say, with the poet:

Let dogs delight to bark and bite.
For God hath made them so;
Let bears and lions growl and fight,
For 'tis their nature too. —Watts.

Yours very truly,
M. G. PACHECO.
